

Managed SIEM

A comprehensive unified security management service for visibility and compliance.

We use the unified security management platform from AlienVault (AT&T Cyber Security), combined with our expert security resources via our dedicated security operations centre to provide a comprehensive managed security service to meet the compliance needs of mid market businesses.

The USM platform delivers powerful threat detection, incident response, and compliance management in one unified platform. It combines all the essential security capabilities needed for effective security monitoring across your cloud and on-premises environments.

Softwerx have been central to our decision-making; very knowledgable, straightforward and practical advice.
